CORAVIN GLASS POUR SELECTION

Clooney is proud to be one of a select few restaurants in New Zealand to use the Coravin system. The coravin system allows us to access any wine that is under cork without breaking the seal. It is a great way to pour rare and interesting wines by the glass that we would not usually have the chance to experience.

- À votre santé.

2013	Domaine Henri Boillot After leaving his family vineyard to start his own negociant business in the early 1980's, Henri returned to the family estate, eventually buying out his brother and sister before changing the name. A lot of work is done to ensure only the best grapes and winemaking practices are used to show off the elegance and finesse of the terroir from the small southern burgundian town.	Puligny Montrachet, France	56
2011	M. Chapoutier 'Les Granits' Marsanne Michel Chapoutier took over the family estate in 1977, the estate now owns vineyards in every major region of the Rhône Valley, and is considered one of the top producers. In 1996 Michel introduced braille labels after he learned of a friend needing to take someone to the wine shop to help him identify different wines.	St. Joseph, France	45
1999	Domaine Jamet Jean-Paul and Corinne Jamet, and now also Loïc make some of the most perfumed, elegant but also powerful syrah on the steep slopes of Côte-Rôtie. This wine comes from a myriad of parcels which varies from vintage to vintage. Jamet is a traditional Côte-Rôtie retains a large portion of stems, as much of the fruit is whole cluster fermented during the vinification process.	Côte-Rôtie, France	110
2006	Poderi Aldo Conterno 'Colonello' Nebbiolo Located in the prestigious town of Monforte d'Alba, Bussia. today the estate is run by Franco, Stefano and Giacomina. Most of the landscape, which is at an altitude of about 400 m. above the sea level, is located South-South-West and it is made of more or less compact sand layers of grey-brown colour alternated with white and bluish calcareous marls. The Colonello vineyard represents one of the most unique of all Barolo's being just as complex as the other vineyards but more approachable from a younger age. Known as the "King of Barolo" in Italy, Aldo Conterno passed away in May 2012, and the wine world lost not only a pioneer and a visionary but also a man of great dignity and grace.	Barolo, Italy	105
2009	Destiny Bay 'Magna Praemia' Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Malbec Producing luxury wines in a natural amphitheatre on Waiheke island, isolated from all other vineyards, Destiny Bay has been producing wines since the early 2000's. The consistent quality of Destiny Bay's wines comes from owner Sean Spratt's mentality of "no exceptions, no excuses."	Waiheke Island, NZ	90
