CORAVIN GLASS POUR SELECTION

Clooney is proud to be one of a select few restaurants in New Zealand to use the Coravin system. The coravin system allows us to access any wine that is under cork without breaking the seal. It is a great way to pour rare and interesting wines by the glass that we would not usually have the chance to experience.

- À votre santé.

2010	Vinoptima Gewürztraminer Gewurz means 'spicy' in German while traminer means 'coming from Tramin', a wine growing district of southern Tyrol, Northern Italy, where Gewurztraminer originated. This wine is now considered a rival of the best examples made by the legendary wine maker Nick Nobile.	Ormond, NZ	29
2007	Ossian Verdejo Javier Zaccagnini and Ismael Gozalo make this complex, rich style from pre-Phylloxera bush vines in sandy soil North-West of Madrid.	Rueda, Spain	36
2014	Billaud Simon 'Les Vaillons' 1er Cru The geological heart of the Chablis wine region lies on a bed of marine sediments, algae and shells that formed 155 million years ago, known as Kimmeridgian. This unusual, iodine-rich geology is imparted to the Chardonnay through its roots and gives Chablis wines their unique minerality. Les Vaillons is one of the best 1er cru examples.	Chablis, France	29
2011	Franz Hirtzberger 'Honivogl' Smaragd Grüner Veltliner The Wachau valley is part of the UNESCO World heritage. Five generations of Hirtzbergers have been making wines here on vines that have been planted since the 13th century. This wine is one of the most unique expressions of the endemic Grüner Veltliner, picked late but fermented dry to produce a wine of unparalleled richness and complexity.	Wachau, Austria	68
2008	Au Bon Climat Chardonnay Fermentation often takes place in smaller open-topped tanks, just as many once did in Burgundy. Jim Clendenen is one of the legends of Californian winemaking.	Santa Barbara, U.S.A	26
2013	Prophet's Rock 'Home Vineyard' Pinot Noir Paul Pujol makes this wine that is aged in barrel for 15-18 months before being bottled unfiltered, and are cellared before release. Since the first release in 2005, the Prophet's Rock Pinot Noir has consistently been one of the best-reviewed Pinot Noirs in New Zealand.	Central Otago, NZ	29
2013	Clape 'Renaissance' Made by Auguste and Pierre Clape, this is one of the best vintages for early drinking Syrah from the Rhône Valley.	Cornas, France	57
2009	Destiny Bay 'Magna Praemia' Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Malbec Producing luxury wines in a natural amphitheatre on Waiheke island, isolated from all other vineyards, Destiny Bay has been producing wines since the early 2000's. The consistent quality of Destiny Bay's wines comes from owner Sean Spratt's mentality of "no exceptions, no excuses."	Waiheke Island, NZ	90
1998	Hugel Vendage Tardive Riesling Winegrowing ancestors since 1639, Georges, Jean and André Hugel still make one of the most long lived and complex styles of late harvest riesling in the world.	Alsace, France	25
