CORAVIN GLASS POUR SELECTION

Clooney is proud to be one of a select few restaurants in New Zealand to use the Coravin system. The Coravin system allows us to access any wine without breaking the seal. It is a great way to pour rare and interesting wines by the glass that we would not usually have the chance to experience.

Foradori 'Fontanasanta' Nosiola 2014

Biodynamically grown in the Dolomite Mountains, a UNESCO World heritage site, Nosiola is an ancient white grape variety native to Trentino. The wine is fermented and matured in traditional terracotta clay amphorae, resulting in a mineral, multilayered and textural expression that pairs perfectly with seafood.
Trentino Alto-Adige, Italy 30

Paolo Bea 'Arboreus' Trebbiano Spoletino 2011

Paolo Bea makes this wine from pre-phylloxera vines that stand 3 metres tall. 3 weeks on skins and four years on lees all result in one of the most unique orange wines you will ever taste.
Umbria, Italy 40

Etienne Sauzet 'Champs-Canet' 1er Cru Puligny-Montrachet 2012

G rard Boudot, now joined by daughter Emilie, and son-in-law Beno t Riffault make some of the most concentrated and opulent wines, yet beautifully proportioned and never overbearing. They are some of the most sought-after wines from Puligny and are models of intensity and balance.
Burgundy, France 110

Domaine Arlaud Morey-Saint-Denis 2009

Cyprien Arlaud is amongst a new guard of burgundy vigneron making more modern and focused burgundy able to be drunk young or aged.
Burgundy, France 55

Jim Barry 'Armagh' 2009

The vineyard was planted in '68, a drought year requiring each vine to be hand watered by the family from drums on the back of a tractor, an investment in blood, sweat and tears that has been handsomely repaid. Elegance is not a word usually associated with wines having the dimension of Armagh, but it applies here, yet without betraying the birthright of a wine with exceptional depth to its fusion of dark berries, spices and toasty oak, the latter in the manner of Grange, obvious yet integrated and balanced.
Clare Valley, Australia 120

Penfold's 'Grange' 1991

This vintage still had a little cabernet sauvignon blended in and the style is one of the classic Granges. A chance to taste Australia's most iconic wine from a great vintage.
South Australia 200

PERRIER-JOUËT - A LOVE STORY

Love was the catalyst for the creation of the House of Perrier-Jouët, established in 1811 after the meeting and subsequent marriage of Pierre Nicolas Perrier and Adele Jouët.

This same year saw a legendary vintage and from this first vintage the house has produced unusually fine champagnes.

The house recognised the potential of overseas markets early on and sent its first consignment to England in 1815 and to the United States a few years later. Responding to the evolving taste of customers, in 1854 the House pioneered a dry champagne, later to be re-named Brut and set the standard for the champagne we know today.

Perrier-Jouët's beautiful Belle Epoque bottle, set with anemones, was created in 1902 by the famous artist Emile Gallé and epitomises the Bohemian spirit of the Belle Epoque era.

Hervé Deschamps, only the seventh cellar master to work at the House, tastes each base wine twice and then creates the blend in one go. Most houses make trial blends and a committee decides, but such is Hervé's skill, he gets it right first time. The Chardonnay grape, floral and almost feminine in its elegance and finesse, is the signature variety of Perrier-Jouët's vineyards and the cornerstone of the Perrier-Jouët style.
